

Center for Teacher Leadership

where accomplished teachers become passionate leaders

Virginia Commonwealth University

Teacher Leadership 101

A PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITY FOR ACCOMPLISHED TEACHERS WHO ASPIRE TO OR ARE TAPPED FOR LEADERSHIP ROLES

Workshop Outcomes

FLEXing Your Communication Skills —

Participants will . . .

- recognize and practice critical elements of effective communication.
- ask questions that promote productive dialogue.
- identify and practice strategies and skills for influencing others.
- implement elements of effective communication with the support of a coaching partner.

Team Building: Shared Followership —

Participants will . . .

- identify and practice strategies for building a team.
- define and facilitate the work of a team.
- identify and practice effective decision-making processes.
- explore practices for managing conflict within a team.
- examine the role of motivation in building a high-functioning team.
- identify the characteristics of a successful team leader.

Teacher Leadership: It's About Time — and Organization

Participants will . . .

- clarify a personal code of values to frame the work of teacher leaders.
- identify time management tools that will increase productivity in both personal and professional lives.
- explore techniques to organize classroom responsibilities more effectively.
- identify strategies to enhance personal organization.
- examine strategies used by schools and districts to restructure time for teacher leadership

After Teacher Leadership 101

SOAR!

Coaching Support for Teacher Leaders

Participants will...

- deepen teacher leadership concept understandings, strengthen leadership skills, and assure application in the work setting
- address leadership challenges through on-going coaching support
- move from problem solving to action planning and implementation
- examine, utilize, and adapt protocols and tools to support the work of leadership

Support~Optimize ~Affirm~Recharge!